THE BULLETIN:

BY EDWARD H. BRITTON.

THE DAILY BULLETIN will be furnished at FIVE DOLLARS per annum IN ADVANCE.

THE TRI-WEEKLY BULLETIN will be published every Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday morning, and supplied for $3 00 per annum, payable in advance.

SHOCKING MURDER.—We learn that a man by the name of Cornwell, from Chester District, S. C., was murdered in Dallas on Friday night last, in a most brutal manner, by being knocked in the head with an axe, by some unknown person or persons, whilst sleeping at his camp fire, on the outskirts of that town. His skull was mashed in for a space of three by two inches, and his bed and clothes covered with blood, presenting a ghastly spectacle when found. He was at once removed to Squire Hoffman's Hotel, where he received every necessary attention from the citizens, and skillful surgical aid from Dr. Wm. Sloan, of Dallas, who removed the pieces of broken bone, and dressed the horrible wound; but the assassin's midnight blow had done its work too well for human power to save its victim, and after lingering speechless until 9 o'clock Sunday morning he died.—This unfortunate man arrived in Dallas about 7 o'clock Friday evening, on his way home from Lincolnton, and after remaining a short time, rode out to where his negro man had camped for the night. About 2 o'clock the next morning the negro, who was sleeping in the wagon, gave the alarm, and reported that he heard his master struggling and jumped out to see what was the matter, and as he did so saw two men run down the road, and he thought a third ran into the woods. No further clue to the perpetrators of the fiendish deed had been obtained up to the time our informant left.

An inquest was held on the body Sunday, but we have not learned their verdict, nor whether any additional facts in relation to the case were elicited.—Shelby Eagle.

The Democrats of New York are making arrangements for a grand celebration of their victory. A letter says:

It is proposed to make some alteration in the plan usually followed on such occasions. The traditional torch light procession is to be dispensed with—a grand banquet at one of the Broadway hotels being accepted as a substitute. To this banquet it is proposed to invite all the Democratic members of Congress elect throughout the State, so that a full and deliberate expression of opinion may be had upon the present and prospective policy of the part in reference to the war and the state of the country.

SALT EXCITEMENT.—We were shown a letter yesterday from Dalton, Ga., to a gentleman of this city, which stated that a number of ladies in that place had gone to the State Depot and demanded of the Agent some salt. He directed them to the Commissary's office, when they repaired thither and demanded salt or blood. That officer gave them some salt, which supplied their immediate wants.—Atlanta Confederacy.

It is reported, says the Rome Courier, that this same thing was done at several other places on the State Road.

SALES OF CONFISCATED PROPERTY.—For several days past, Mr. Receiver Wilder has been selling at auction—Col. J. H. Cook, Auctioneer—a variety of property of alien enemies, confiscated under the retaliatory law of the Confederate Congress. The prices at which furniture, wines, &c., sold were generally enormous, rivalling the prices of goods that run the blockade. Among the sales were 10 shares of the Bank of Fayetteville stock, confiscated as the property of the Hon. Ed. Stanley, which brought $70, the par being $50 and 10 shares of the Bank of Clarendon stock, belonging to a Mr. Clark of Pennsylvania, sold at $67.50, par 50. Fine old Sherry wine brought $20 a gallon; pint bottles of Scotch Whisky, $3.50 each.

Other sales were made of stocks not confiscated but belonging to persons here, as follows: 42 shares Bank of Fayetteville at $67.50; 30 Bank of Clarendon at $66 and 30 do. $65.50. A Confederate Bond of $1000 was sold at $1065, on which interest since July 1 had accrued.—Fayetteville Observer.

The opponent of Mr. Ben. Wood, Gen. Walbridge, who had the day before electioneered with his party as the "war candidate" through the city in open baronches, each drawn by four horses beautifully plumed and caparisoned, preceded by a brass band of music, he clasping in his right hand a flag staff from which floated the Stars and Stripes, and with the American flag enwrapped around his body, and so arranged as to show one star for each State!! was badly beaten despite this Yankee exhibition of himself and the influence of the Herald, which labored most earnestly for his re-election.

With regard to the North Carolina expedition, the New York Express says it left Newbern about the 28th of October, and was composed of 12,000 men and several gunboats. The Express adds:

We should not be surprised to learn by the next arrival from Newbern that the Union forces above mentioned had captured Goldsborough, a point of the utmost strategic importance. It is the capitol of Wayne county, and situated on the Neuse River, where it is crossed by the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad, fifty miles southeast of Raleigh. Steamboats of light draught can ascend the river for about two thirds of the year. That place has (or had) a population of about 5,000.

The Concert.

The Concert given by HARRY MACARTHY at Treloar Hall last evening, was decidedly a rich entertainment. The Hall was crowded and the performances were of a character altogether pleasing and original. The audience were highly delighted, and made up as it was of the most respectable and intelligent in this community, we are warranted in saying that those who may not have attended last evening will have lost a rich treat if they do not attend before Mr. Macarthy departs from Charlotte. We hope he will be greeted by a full house to-night. He merits the patronage and respect of this community, being a true gentleman as well as an accomplished performer.

☞We have been requested to state that the sale of the property advertised by Mr. Martin Muntzler, to take place on the 2d Saturday in December is postponed until further notice.

SCRAPS.

The Louisville, Ky., Democrat says: When a government of white men undertakes to educate the negro to an equality, they, the negroes, become not only its pupils, but the very whites of its eyes.

A female recruit was detected at Rochester, New York, by trying to put her pants on over her head.

A clergyman lately announced that on the next Sabbath he would preach a sermon to "moral men." Upon the occasion the house was crowded in every part, and a large proportion of the congregation had not darkened the church door for years.

A decree has been entered in the United States Court at Cincinnati, in favor of Geo. Peabody & Co., the American London bankers, for the $70,000 claimed by them from the Ohio and Mississippi Railroad Company.

The Houston (Texas) News says we have now about 50,000 troops in the field west of the Mississippi River, all prepared and eager for active service.

The Mormons, it is stated, have turned their attention to raising cotton, and that the crop was promising.

Col. A. J. Money, editor of the Cynthiana, Ky., News, is now in Knoxville, Tennessee, an exile from his paper. It is not the first time that Money has been an exile from a newspaper office, so says the Atlanta (Ga.) Commonwealth. So Kentucky is now "without Money" and Missouri is "without Price."

Mrs. Jessie Fremont has in press a volumn entitled "The Story of the Guard, or, Chronicles of the War," in which it is said she will "tell home truths appertaining to her husband's much abused campaign in Missouri."

Gen. Jim Lane's negro brigade was whipped on the 10th, by a company of Missouri militia while attempting to cross the Kansas into Missouri.

Fears of Morgan in Kentucky.

A correspondent writing from Owensboro', Kentucky, of the doings of John Morgan says:

On Saturday evening, the stores were all closed and business entirely suspended, and the people were arming as they best could to resist any attack of the enemy.

A courier had arrived in the afternoon bringing the information that Morgan was in possession of Hartford, Ohio county, only two miles from Owensboro', with between one thousand and fifteen hundred men, where, it was said, he would be joined by a portion of Johnson's guerillas for a raid upon Owensboro'.

This information caused the most intense excitement at Owensboro', which place is but poorly defended, the troops their being armed with old muskets, which are deemed next thing to worthless, and which are of little service against the mounted guerillas.

The citizens of Owensboro' expected an attack at any moment, and in the event of its capture the rebels declare their intention to be to move at once upon Evansville and capture that city.

At Big Clifty, on Wednesday last, Morgan robbed the post office, capturing and paroling a number of the Home Guards there, and taking away the Federal flag which has floated over the postoffice since the war commenced. Morgan's troops were dressed in the Federal uniform, and in this manner succeeded in entering the town without exciting the suspicion of the citizens.

In this foray Morgan stole every good horse in the neighborhood, robbed one citizen of five hundred dollars, another of one hundred and fifty, and others of various sums. Such provisions as he could not carry away with him he destroyed.

THE EXEMPTION ACT RELIEVES NO ONE IN SERVICE.—Many persons are of the opinion that the exemptions apply to soldiers already in the army, (especially to conscripts under the first law,) and that the act provides for their release from the service. This is a mistake, as will be seen by the following extract from the War Department, containing instructions for the execution of the late Conscription law:

"V. EXEMPTION.—The Exemption Act will be construed prospectively, and does not authorize the discharge of any one enrolled or in service prior to the 11th day of October, 1862."—Columbus (Ga.) Enquirer, Nov. 13.

Progress of the War.

From our late Northern papers we make up some interesting items of news bearing on the war:

WHAT IS TO HAPPEN AT THE NORTH.

If the predictions of the Republican speakers and writers in New York before the elections are to be fulfilled, the North is to have a terrible experience at home. The following is an extract from a letter in the Buffalo Express, written by Samuel Wilkerson, an attache of the Tribune, who has been the greatest part of his time for the last year its principal correspondent or agent at Washington. The letter is dated the 26th of October:

"I tell you, my dear sir, that it, in a Satanic providence of politics, we are passed under the yoke by Horatio Seymour, to the slave power, the revolution now in progress in the South will be transferred to the North, and will whelm the great cities and portions of the country with violence that I shudder to think of. This result is inevitable from the enthronement in New York of the power which is waging bloody war against the life of the Republic. It will assuredly endeavor to secure its future by a destruction of our liberties. With what bloody obstinacy this endeavor would be resisted such men as you and I know."

Cassius M. Clay, another radical, gave a glimpse of the same plot, in his speech at the Republican meeting in New York. He adds:

"He had been charged with rashness in saying that if Seymour and Wood were hung it would save the lives of many honest Democrats. But from what we have heard, could any one doubt that they were giving aid and comfort to the enemies of the Government? And in that case the men who made the Constitution had decided that they should be hung by the neck till they were dead. 'And may God have mercy on their souls.' If Seymour should be elected, civil war would be at our heart-stones."

The New York World thinks it is the deliberate purpose of the Republicans to prevent such Democratic State officers as are elected entering on the discharge of their duties. A Provost Marshal is to notify them that the Administration has prepared free lodgings for them in Fort Lafayette. The outlines of the plan are stated in the following quotations from the Times:

"Martial law over the entire North is a national necessity. If the Governors of the Northern States manifest a factious spirit, the Provost Marshalls, it is presumed, will have power to keep them in order. If State Legislatures should undertake to interfere with the actions of the general Government necessary to the prosecution of the war, they will come under the action of martial law, and if the action of any political party shall threaten to change or palayze the movements of the Government, it will doubtless be competent for the Provost Marshall in any State to suspend political meetings and postpone elections. If the Constitution of the United States is to be construed according to the necessities of a civil war of vast proportions, the Constitutions of individual States cannot be allowed to stand in the way of its vigorous prosecution."

News Items.

KNOXVILLE, Nov. 13.

The Lynchburg Republican says the reported heavy cannonading heard at Gordonsville on the 11th, is supposed to be a battle progressing.

New York dates of the 6th have been received.

A battle in Virginia is regarded in Washington as imminent.

The most gloomy anticipations are being entertained in Washington from the Democrats.

Important changes in the Cabinet and military commands are expected to take place.

The New York Tribune says that if the war is not now fought resolutely, sympathy and alliance with the South will be formed by Fernando Wood's dictatorship.

The Times says:

"The result indicates a profound dissatisfaction in the conduct of the war, and demands unhesitating action in this awful emergency. Every arm of the national power must instantly be put in motion."

A letter from Montreal, dated 3d inst., says:

"An uneasy feeling of apprehension prevails that Great Britain is on the eve of a contest with the United States. The steamers from Quebec bring up daily quantities of guns and ammunition. The arrival of the British frigate Ariadne with artillery, troops and stores, has startled the people. Troops from Halifax are coming in the Canada. Ten thousand men are to be concentrated at Montreal. The Canadian sympathy is strongly Southern. The Montreal advertiser thinks that Gladstone's speech is strongly significant of the course of the British Government."

General Bayle is sending from Kentucky all those who sympathize with our army.

Commodore Garret J. Pendergrast died in Philadelphia on the 7th inst.

The town of Haymarket, Va., was fired by two men of General Steinwehr's command.

The Washington correspondent of the New York Post says the President will not retract from his Emancipation Proclamation because of the results of the election. The Government fully realizes that what it has to do must be done with dispatch, and that going into winter quarters means disgraceful peace—consequently the army will not go into winter quarters, unless it is possible for the commanding General to overrule the President.

HOW TO CORN BEEF.—Add two pounds of brown sugar to eight gallons of water; also, one quart molasses, four ounces of nitre, and fine salt till it will float an egg. This is enough for two quarters of beef.

The accounts of Garibaldi's health express much apprehension in regard to it.

Van Buren in Trouble.

We find the following correspondence in the New York Herald:

To the Editor of the Herald:

I have just received, by mail the enclosed communication, which I ask you to publish for the benefit of all concerned.

I do not regard this as a private letter, as the writer announces his purpose to publish it at the expiration of ten days, and I suppose that I have the right to do so now.

Truly yours,
J. VAN BUREN.

New York, Nov 5, 1862.

COUNT GUROWSKI TO MR. VAN BUREN.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4, 1862.
252, G. St.

SIR: In your speech a Rochester you spoke of Gl. J. Wadsworth in a way which brands you as the meanest among the mean.

It would be showing you too much honor to spit in your face.

However I will so far soil my hands and tell you that I am ready to meet you wherever you wish and in any way you may choose.

If this is not answered within ten days it will be published

A. GUROWSKI.

HON. JOHN VAN BUREN,
etc etc etc.

William A. Fitzhugh, Esq., will receive any further communication from you to me.

G.

The A. Gurowski who signs this delicate epistle to Mr John Van Buren, is the well known, distinguished, elegant, polite and accomplished nobleman who was at one time an attache of the State Department.

The following extracts are from the Baltimore Sun of the 8th inst:

The telegraph having alluded to certain complications with the French Government, we copy from the Washington correspondence of the New York Times an explanation of the matter:

The news already given that important papers have been submitted to the Secretary of State by the Minister of France is said to be related to the difficulties which have at various times occurred between French citizens residing in New Orleans and Gen. Butler. In many instances these French residents have been complaining to the Imperial government, through M. Mercier, of exactions and prosecutions of all kinds exercised against their persons by order, or with the assent of Gen. Butler; and it is the redress of these wrongs which is said to be at the bottom of the reclamations presented by M. Mercier to Mr Seward.

The Times, in commenting on the subject, remarks:

Among the most serious of these French cases is that of Mr. Heidsick, of champaign celebriety: Three months ago Mr. Heidsick was sent to Fort Jackson by General Butler, and he is still kept in confinement there, notwithstanding his release, signed by Secretary Seward and sent to the Governor of New Orleans. It appears that Mr Heidsick, who is related to some of the first class families in France, wrote to his parents and firlends the particulars of his arrest, which particulars were immediately forwarded to the French Minister. After a careful examination of the case, M. Thouvenel, being satisfied that the detention of Mr Heidsick was in no was justified, has written an energetic remonstrance to our government, not only for the immediate release of this gentleman, but asking an indemnity adequate to the damages caused by his long imprisonment and the wrong he is alleged to have sustained.

CURE FOR DIPTHERIA.—A lady correspondent sends us the following simple and effective cure for Diptheria. She has tried in a great many cases, and feels authorized to speak of its efficacy. As this terrible disease is prevailing to an alarming extent in this city, it might not be imprudent to test the virtues of this receipe. It can certainly do no harm, and may save many lives:

SIMPLE AND EFFECTUAL CURE FOR DIPTHERIA.

After bathing the feet, wrap up warm in bed, take a teaspoonful of the tincture of lobelia, and apply a tar poultice to the throat as warm as can be borne. It will afford relief in a short time.

Having tried the above remedy successfully in a great many cases, the Editors of the Express will oblige a lady friend, by giving it publicly through their columns.

BY TELEGRAPH.

From Richmond.

RICHMOND, Nov. 17.

The town is rife with exciting rumors concering the movements in the neighborhood of Harpers Ferry.

Despatches received from reliable sources represent all quiet in the Valley. The situation of affairs represented satisfactory. Stated that the enemy made an advance on Norfolk and Petersburg Railroad, this side of Blackwater river, on Friday last; a skirmish ensued and the enemy was driven back several miles. The affair regarded as unimportant, but may be a prelude to a more formidable movement.

J. O. Wilbrill, formerly of Wool's staff in Mexico, was assassinated in Cary Street last night. The deceased was an Englishman and was much esteemed. Nothing transpired before the Coroner's Jury to identify the perpetrator of the outrage; believed, however, that Wilbrill was mistaken for another man.

The Baltimore Gazette of the 15th inst. contains some interesting items.

A special Washington correspondent to the New York Times in a despatch, dated the 14th, enlarges on the delicate nature of Yankee relations with France and Spain, and says the French Government has demanded full and immediate indemnity for all injuries inflicted upon French citizens by Gen Butler. The immense armament now ready at Marseilles being pointed to as a commentary on diplomatic requests. The State Department is ready to back down to any extent from Gen. Butler's acts. The Spanish Minister has addressed our Government demanding an apology for the burning of a vessel in Spanish waters by one of the ships of Admiral Farragut's fleet. This act was made more heinous by insults to the Cuban magistrate who remonstrated against this wrong done in a neutral port.

The Gazette says the condition of our foreign relations, notwithstanding the modified assurances lately given by the Associated Press correspondent to the contrary, is distinctly assumed to be threatening, especially with France and Spain.

The New York World correspondent says the course pursued by Gen. Butler at N. Orleans and the seal of some of the naval commanders in the West Indies have evoked those issues which the representatives of two, at least, of the powers concerned, who are pressing somewhat a peremptory solution.

Lord Lyons recently had an interview with Seward.

The following significant sentence occurs in McClellan's speech at Trenton: "While the army is fighting, you, as citizens, should see that the war is prosecuted for the preservation of the Union and the Constitution, for your nationality and your rights."

Foreign papers up to the 1st inst. have been received.

English papers say little in regard to American affairs, except the Times which draws attention to the immense increase of the Yankee navy.

From the West.

CHATTANOOGA, Nov. 15.

Nashville dispatches of the 11th just received, states that a wagon train consisting of one hundred wagons with army stores arrived yesterday. The prospect is that the army will be amply supplied in a few days.

There is a large gang at work on the Louisville and Nashville Rail Road South of the Kentucky line and the Road will soon be in running order to Louisville.—The suffering of the people is still very great for want of the necessaries of life.

The dispatch learns that Buell is to be tried by Court Martial at Cincinnati.

Gen. McCook's headquarters is on High Street. Gen. Negly occupies the residence of Gen. Zollicoffer.

The river still continues too low for navigation.

The Murfreesboro Banner says that another division of the enemy crossed the Cumberland River on Wednesday.
